

BLAMELESS HEARTS

Sunday, December 1, 2024

As We Gather

The “blame game” has been happening since the fall into sin when Adam blamed Eve and Eve blamed the serpent for their world-changing transgression. To this day when things go wrong, the “blame game” continues among siblings, spouses, coworkers, elected leaders, and governments around the world. If we are honest, we realize that we often have no one to blame but ourselves, as we are by nature sinful and unclean. In contrast to our “blame game,” we have a blameless Savior who came into this world as one of us. Through Jesus Christ, whose birth we prepare for as we begin this Advent season, we are made holy and blameless in God’s sight. We share Paul’s prayer for the church in Thessalonica to make our hearts blameless: “May the Lord make you increase and abound in love for one another and for all, as we do for you, so that He may establish your hearts blameless in holiness before our God and Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all His saints” (1 Thessalonians 3:12–13).

10:45 AM Pre-Service Song “He Has Come For Us (God Rest Ye Merry Gentleman)”

Invocation

P: In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. C: Amen.

Lighting of the Advent Wreath

P: Each week in Advent, we light a candle as we prepare for the arrival of the Savior, who would come to His people in human flesh and who promises to come again. In a world of darkness, a light shines. Jesus Christ is the light of the world.

C: The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.

P: The first Advent candle is known as the prophecy candle or the candle of hope. We hear again the first promise and prophesy made in the Garden of Eden after the fall into sin: “I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and her offspring; He shall bruise your head, and you shall bruise His heel.” The Lord has kept His Word through the mouths of prophets who, for generations, pointed people to the promised Savior to come.

C: The true light, which enlightens everyone, was coming into the world.

P: Guided by the light of hope, we respond with the psalmist: “Our soul waits for the LORD;

C: He is our help and our shield.

P: For our heart is glad in Him, because we trust in His holy name.

C: Let Your steadfast love, O LORD, be upon us, even as we hope in You.”

The first Advent candle is lit.

8:15 AM Opening Hymn “O Come, O Come, Emmanuel” Sts. 1–2: LSB 357

10:45 AM Opening Song “God So Loved”

Confession and Absolution

P: As we begin the Advent season—a time of preparation for the coming of our Savior and a time of pondering God’s great love for us given in His Son—we also prepare ourselves to come before Him in humility and with honesty. If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.

C: If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

P: The prophet Jeremiah proclaims, “The days are coming, declares the LORD, when I will fulfill the promise I made. . . . And this is the name by which it will be called: ‘The LORD is our righteousness.’”

C: We confess we have not rightly rejoiced in the promises that the Lord made and fulfilled and have instead found our fulfillment in the temporal things of our lives and this world. We have sought our own rightness instead of the Lord’s righteousness. Forgive us.

P: Paul prays, “May the Lord make you increase and abound in love for one another and for all, . . . so that He may establish your hearts blameless in holiness before our God and Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus.”

C: We confess our hearts are full of blame and unholiness. Our love has been misguided and our actions have been self-serving. We have not loved You with our whole heart nor loved our neighbors as ourselves. Forgive us.

P: As Jesus speaks of the time of His return, He calls His followers to “straighten up and raise your heads, because your redemption is drawing near.”

C: We confess we have not remained ready for Your return, nor realized time is short for the work You’ve called us to do. We have prioritized other matters instead of Your Word, relied on other things instead of Your presence, and in our thoughts, words, and actions have chosen to live our way instead of by Your commands. Forgive us.

P: The Lord is our righteousness. He alone establishes hearts blameless in holiness at His coming. Redemption draws near. We are declared righteous, blameless, and redeemed because of the living, dying, and rising of our Savior, Jesus Christ. As a called and ordained servant of Christ and by His authority, I forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. C: Amen.

Salutation

P: The Lord be with you. C: And also with you.

Prayer of the Day

P: Let us pray. From everlasting to everlasting You are our God, and You come to Your people. In Your Word and in the flesh of Your only-begotten Son, You come that we may know forgiveness, righteousness, and redemption.

C: Prepare us to receive You in this season and always, that our hearts may be made blameless and filled with holiness;

P: through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. C: Amen.

The Words of Our Lord

Proclamation of Christ

P: As often as we eat this bread and drink this cup, we proclaim the Lord’s death until He comes.

C: Amen. Come, Lord Jesus.

P: O Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, in giving us Your body and blood to eat and to drink, You lead us to remember and confess Your holy cross and passion, Your blessed death, Your rest in the tomb, Your resurrection from the dead, Your ascension into heaven, and Your coming for the final judgment. So remember us in Your kingdom and teach us to pray:

Lord’s Prayer

Pax Domini

P: The peace of the Lord be with you always. C: Amen.

P: Give thanks to the LORD, for He is good,

C: for His steadfast love endures forever.

P: We thank and praise You that as we prepare to celebrate Christ’s coming in the flesh and His promised return, You have come to us now through this gift of His body and blood for the forgiveness of our sins and nourishment of faith. Enable us, equip us, and make us, through faith in You, and in fervent love for one another, to

C: increase and abound in love for one another and for all, so that You may establish our hearts blameless in holiness before You, our God and Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus. Amen.

Today we welcome Redeemer's newest member:

✠ By Private Baptism, April Sudtelgte, 1754 Arona St.,
Falcon Heights, MN 55113.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Holy Communion is celebrated at Redeemer in the confession and glad confidence that, as He says, our Lord gives into our mouths not only bread and wine but His very body and blood to eat and drink for the forgiveness of sins and to strengthen our union with Him and with one another. Our Lord invites to His table those who trust His words, repent of all sin, and set aside any refusal to forgive and love as He forgives and loves us, that we may show forth His death until He comes. We ask visitors who are in doubt or hold a confession differing from that of this congregation, and yet desire to receive the sacrament, to first speak with a pastor.

Our worship services will continue to be available, traditional &/or contemporary, on our website: www.redeemersiouxcity.com or you can like us on Facebook or find us on YouTube.

Children's Bulletins and Quiet Bags are in the back of the church. Please place the Quiet Bags in the plastic container (next to the bags) when finished. Thank You!

Large-Print Bulletins and hearing devices are available from Ushers.

Just a reminder that we welcome prayer requests through our church email: redeemerchurchsc@gmail.com. You don't have to be a member to request prayers.

If you would like to give a charitable donation, you may drop off at the church or mail to RLC, 3204 S. Lakeport, Sioux City, IA 51106.

Pulpit Flowers are given by Jan Null in memory of Dick Null.

The Annual Voters Meeting has been schedule for Sunday, December 8th, 2:00 PM, in the fellowship hall. All members 18 and older are welcome to attend.

We are pleased to announce two more days have been added to the schedule for taking pictures. December 10 and 11, they'll take more pictures. Please go online at www.ucdir.com and enter ia330 as the username - photos as the password. Or call the office and we'll help you.

The Bonhoeffer movie is now playing. Both movie theaters, AMC Southern hills 12 and ACX promenade cinemas are playing a new movie about a Lutheran pastor who lived and died during Nazi Germany. It should be a good movie for all Christians, especially us Lutherans, to go and watch.

Upcoming Bible Study: 'Where God Came Down: The Archaeological Evidence' by Joel P. Kramer offers compelling evidence that the Bible is trustworthy. Layer by layer, the Bible and archaeology agree! We will examine different Biblical sites, revealing how divine interactions with simple people thousands of years ago shaped ordinary, unimportant places into holy sites, still revered today. This bible study will involve studying different Biblical passages and corresponding videos which show where these events took place! This course will strengthen your faith that the Bible is indeed true and inspired by God! The course will be begin Wednesday, Jan. 8th, at 5:30 PM and continue each week until February 26th. If interested, call or text Curt Green.

Christmas Program Practice! If you are interested in being part of the Christmas program, join us in the basement for our first practice of the year. Parts will be assigned, and we will go through the program. Practice is from 1-2 PM. All ages are welcome.

Thanksgiving Offerings will go to Lutheran Family Services.

Monday, December 2nd, 6:30 PM - LWML Board Meeting in conference room. All are invited to attend.

Join us for The Word Made Flesh special Midweek services, Wednesday, December 4th, 11:30 AM & 7 PM. For the first week of our Advent series, we celebrate that Jesus is born in Bethlehem, the House of Bread, to nourish and strengthen us in our faith and feed us with his Word of truth to fill our lives.

Red M&Ms: We have our breakfast / bible study this coming Saturday, December 7th at 7:30 a.m. Come join the food, fellowship, and discussion.

MERCY MEALS —SATURDAY, DECEMBER 7th, 10 AM-12 PM -
